

POLICY FOR PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

This Policy has been formulated and approved by the Board of Directors of JPT Securities Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Company” or “JPT”) in accordance with the requirement of Regulation 9 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as “Listing Regulations”), pursuant to which, the Company is required to have a Policy for preservation of documents classifying them in at least two categories as follows-

- (a) Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature;
- (b) Documents with preservation period of not less than 8 years after completion of the relevant transactions.

Provided that the Company may keep documents specified in clauses (a) and (b) in electronic mode.

Besides above, as per applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013, certain documents are required to be preserved permanently or up to a certain prescribed time.

Accordingly, this Policy has been framed keeping in view, inter alia, the requirements of Listing Regulations and the provisions of Companies Act, 2013.

This Policy shall come into effect from December 01, 2015.

DEFINITIONS

OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that all the necessary documents and records of the Company are adequately protected and preserved as per the statutory requirements and to ensure that the records of the Company which are no longer needed or are of no value are discarded after following the due process for discarding the same.

This Policy is also for the purpose of aiding employees of the Company in understanding their obligations in retaining and preserving the documents and records which are required to be maintained as per the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

The following aspects are considered while arriving at the preservation period:

- Company's own information retrieval needs (reference value).
- Statutory requirements under respective statutes.
- Litigation requirements.
- Easy retrieval.
- Ensure that unwanted records do not occupy storage space.

PRESERVATION PRINCIPLES

It is only through preservation that continued availability and access to required documents can be maintained. The following principles shall be kept in mind:-

- Where possible, documents are preserved in their original format, respecting the physical integrity and authenticity of the original documents.
- Active conservation is employed, when appropriate, to prevent further deterioration or damage to a document or to enable access to be given.
- Appropriate conservation measures taking into account the needs, value, significance, and usage of the document in question.
- Copies shall be created where appropriate to protect the original and to allow wider access to the content. Copies shall not replace the original, which will still need preservation.

MAINTAINENCE OF RECORDS

- The content and essential characteristics of digital records must remain unchanged through preservation.
- Digital records can be maintained in forms such as emails, web pages or database records, plus scanned versions of paper records that have been digitised in business processes.
